2. Grounded Research Q&A

Q1: earnings_and_revenue

What were the most recent quarterly earnings (EPS) and revenue figures for Rivian Automotive Inc (RIVN)? Did they beat or miss analyst expectations?

Answer:

For the most recent quarter (Q1 2026, reported on April 30, 2026), Rivian Automotive Inc. (RIVN) reported the following figures:

Financial Results (Q1 2026)

- * Revenue: $1.38 billion, representing an 11% increase year-over-year.
- * Earnings Per Share (EPS): Reported figures vary by metric (GAAP vs. Non-GAAP), with reports citing a loss between -$0.33 and -$0.55 per share.

Performance vs. Analyst Expectations

Rivian beat analyst expectations on both the top and bottom lines:

- * Revenue Beat: The $1.38 billion in revenue exceeded the consensus estimates, which ranged from approximately $1.35 billion to $1.37 billion (though one source noted a slight miss against a higher $1.39 billion estimate).
- * EPS Beat: The company significantly outperformed earnings expectations. Analysts had projected a loss ranging from -$0.59 to -$0.71 per share, making the actual reported loss a notable beat.

Key Business Highlights from the Report

- * R2 Production: Rivian officially started production of saleable R2 vehicles in Normal, Illinois, with employee deliveries already underway and customer deliveries expected shortly.
- * Strategic Partnerships: The company highlighted a major robotaxi partnership with Uber to deploy up to 50,000 autonomous vehicles and received a $1 billion equity investment from Volkswagen Group.
- * Segment Performance: Growth was heavily driven by the Software and Services segment.

Q2: forward_guidance

What is the forward guidance and future growth outlook for RIVN for the next quarter and fiscal year?

Answer:

Based on Rivian's Q1 2026 earnings report and management commentary from April 30, 2026, the forward guidance and growth outlook are centered on the critical launch of the R2 midsize SUV and the expansion of its software services.

Next Quarter Outlook (Q2 2026)

- * Vehicle Deliveries: Rivian expects to deliver approximately 9,000 to 11,000 vehicles in Q2.
- * R2 Launch: The company has officially started production of saleable R2 vehicles.

While first customer deliveries are targeted for late spring/Q2, management noted that the R2 delivery ramp will be back half weighted, meaning the bulk of the growth will occur in the second half of the year.

Profitability Warning: CFO Claire McDonough cautioned that the complexity of the R2 launch will likely negatively impact automotive gross profit during the second and third quarters before turning into a benefit in Q4.

Fiscal Year 2026 Guidance

Rivian has reaffirmed its full-year targets for 2026, describing it as a "transition year" focused on scaling.

Metric	2026 Guidance
--------	---------------

Vehicle Deliveries	62,000 - 67,000 vehicles
--------------------	--------------------------

Adjusted EBITDA	Loss of $1.8 billion to $2.1 billion
-----------------	--

Capital Expenditures	$1.95 billion to $2.05 billion
----------------------	----------------------------------

Future Growth Drivers & Strategic Outlook

The R2 Platform: The R2 is the primary catalyst for future growth. It is designed to be more affordable (starting

Q3: valuation_multiples

What are the current valuation multiples for RIVN (e.g., P/E ratio, Price-to-Sales, EV/EBITDA)? How do these compare to its industry peers?

Answer:

As of late April 2026, Rivian Automotive (RIVN) continues to be valued primarily on its revenue growth and future potential rather than current earnings, as the company is not yet profitable.

Current Valuation Multiples for RIVN

Based on recent financial data, Rivian's key valuation multiples are as follows:

Metric	Current Value (Approx.)	Note
--------	-------------------------	------

Price-to-Sales (P/S)	3.5x - 3.8x	The primary metric used for RIVN due to lack of net income.
----------------------	-------------	---

P/E Ratio	Negative (At Loss)	Reported around -5.3x to -5.9x; reflects ongoing net losses.
-----------	--------------------	--

EV/EBITDA	Negative	Reported around -7.6x to -10.3x; reflects negative EBITDA.
-----------	----------	--

Forward P/S	~1.76x	Based on projected future revenue growth.
-------------	--------	---

Industry Peer Comparison

Because Rivian is in a "growth and scale" phase, its multiples look very different from legacy automakers (who are profitable) and Tesla (which has achieved massive scale and profitability).

1. Price-to-Sales (P/S) Comparison

The P/S ratio is the most useful tool for comparing Rivian to its peers because it ignores the current lack of profit and focuses on how the market values every dollar of revenue.

- * Rivian (RIVN): ~3.7x
- * EV Pure-Plays (Chinese Peers): Generally lower, ranging from 1.2x (Li Auto/NIO) to 1.4x (XPeng).
- * Legacy Automakers (Ford/GM): Significantly lower, often between 0.3x and 0.5x.
- * Tesla (TSLA): Hist
